Hayes is very active with community involvement – he is past vice-chair and current audit committee chair of Calgary Economic Development as well as sitting on boards for the Calgary Film Centre, Calgary Prostate Cancer Centre and Wood's Homes Society.

JAY McNEIL

PRESIDENT AND CFL ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

McNeil was appointed team president on Jan. 23, 2024. The former Stampeders offensive lineman had returned to the organization on Sept. 22, 2022, in the role of vice-president of business operations.

McNeil played for the Stampeders from 1994 to 2007, earning Canadian Football League all-star recognition on three occasions and West Division all-star honours six times. McNeil was a member of Grey Cup-championship teams in 1998 and 2001 and was twice voted by teammates as the winner of the Presidents' Ring for excellence on and off the field.

After his playing career, McNeil remained in Calgary and built a strong business career, leading sales and business operations for a number of companies including Trinidad Drilling, Tervita, Secure Energy and most recently in the role of COO for Cleantek Industries.

McNeil also maintained strong ties to football, serving as a trustee for the CFL Players Pension Plan and as vice-president of the Canadian Football League Players Association. He also continued his association with the Stampeders, acting as a community ambassador for the team's alumni association.

McNeil has a Bachelor of Business Administration from Kent State University and a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Fredericton.

McNeil lives in Calgary with his wife Tara and son Cuyler. The family enjoys travelling, skiing and Calgary's vibrant food scene.

JOHN HUFNAGEL

ADVISOR/CONSULTANT AND CFL ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

CFL - 25 | STAMPS - 24

John Hufnagel serves as a special advisor to team president Jay McNeil as well as to general manager Dave Dickenson.

Hufnagel was previously team president for eight years from 2016 to 2023. He served as the team's head coach and general manager from 2008 to 2015 and held the dual roles of president and general manager from 2016 to 2022.

Including his playing career, Hufnagel has been involved in professional football for 51 years including 37 in the CFL.

Hufnagel is a member of the 2020 class of the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in the builders' category and he was the 2019 recipient of the CFL's Hugh Campbell Distinguished Leadership Award.

Hufnagel is also a two-time winner of Annis Stukus Trophy as the CFL's coach of the year and led the Stampeders to Grey Cup victories in 2008 and 2014. He had a 102-41-1 career mark as a head coach and his winning percentage is best among coaches with at least 100 games on the sidelines.

The Stampeders posted a winning record for 14 consecutive seasons after Hufnagel's return in 2008 and accumulated seven first-place finishes in the West Division while qualifying for the post-season every year. Hufnagel served as GM for three Grey Cup-winning teams.

Hufnagel began his coaching career in 1987 with the Saskatchewan Roughriders as a player/coach. In 1990, he joined the Stampeders as offensive coordinator under Wally Buono. In this role, Hufnagel helped guide the team to three Grey Cup games, including a championship in 1992. His innovative offences were explosive under the direction of Doug Flutie, who received the CFL's Most Outstanding Player award three consecutive years (1992-1994) with the Stamps. Hufnagel also developed Jeff Garcia and enabled him to take over from Flutie in 1996. These high-powered offences produced future Hall-of-Famers such as Terry Vaughn, Rocco Romano, Allen Pitts and Flutie, along with players who received numerous league accolades such as Dave Sapunjis and Vince Danielson. During Hufnagel's first seven seasons with the Stampeders, the team finished first in the West Division six times.

Following his early success in the CFL, he went to the Arena Football League as head coach/general manager of the New Jersey Red Dogs. In two seasons, he posted a 17-11 record. Hufnagel joined the Cleveland Browns in 1999 and spent two seasons as the team's quarterbacks coach. In 2001, he was the quarterbacks coach for the Indianapolis Colts when Peyton Manning completed 62.7 per cent of his passes and threw for 4,131 yards. Hufnagel spent the 2002 season as quarterbacks coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. That year, Mark Brunell threw just seven interceptions in 416 pass attempts and his 85.7 quarterback rating was his highest in four years.

Hufnagel spent the 2003 season as quarterbacks coach for the Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots. Under his tutelage, Tom Brady completed 60.2 per cent of his passes for 3,620 yards, 23 touchdowns and 12 interceptions and was named the Super Bowl MVP.

The next season, Hufnagel joined the New York Giants, with whom he spent three seasons as offensive coordinator. In 2004, the Giants scored 60 more points than they had the previous season. Running back Tiki Barber set a franchise record with 1,518 rushing yards and quarterback Eli Manning started laying a foundation that saw him emerge as the Super Bowl MVP for the 2007 season. In 2005, Barber upped his team record to 1,860 rushing yards and the Giants had the third-highest scoring offence in the NFL.

Hufnagel returned to the Stampeders on Dec. 3, 2007, when he was introduced as head coach and general manager.

Prior to coaching, Hufnagel starred at Penn State University. In his final two seasons as the starting quarterback, Hufnagel's record was 21-3. As a junior, he led the Nittany Lions to a 30-6 Cotton Bowl win over Texas and in his final season took his team to the Sugar Bowl. He finished sixth in Heisman Trophy voting in 1972.

In 1973, he was a 14th-round draft choice of the Denver Broncos. He spent three seasons with the Broncos before beginning a 12-year CFL career with the Stampeders (1976-79), Saskatchewan Roughriders (1980-83, 1987) and Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1984-86).

Hufnagel earned a Bachelor of Science degree in marketing from Penn State. John and his wife Sherry reside in Cochrane. He has two daughters, Neely and Lindsey, and a son, Cole.

COACHING STAFF

DAVE DICKENSON*GENERAL MANAGER AND HEAD COACH*CFL • 16 / STAMPS • 16

Dickenson is in his 16th season on the Stampeders coaching staff, his eighth as the team's head coach and his second with the additional role of general manager. His regular-season record as head coach through seven seasons is 79-41-2.

Last season, Dickenson led the Stampeders to an 18th consecutive playoff appearance. The Stamps' run of post-season appearances was in jeopardy until back-to-back clutch victories in October – at home against Saskatchewan and on the road against BC – allowed Calgary to clinch a playoff berth. Linebacker Micah Awe, receiver Reggie Begelton, centre Sean McEwen and defensive tackle Mike Rose were all members of the West Division's all-star team in 2023 while Awe, Begelton and Rose were also CFL all-stars.

In 2022, Calgary finished 12-6, led the CFL with 562 points scored and ranked second in the league with 397 points allowed. Eleven Stampeders received West Division all-star nods and eight players were named CFL all-stars.

In 2021, the Stampeders rallied from a slow start to win six of their last seven regular-season games. The strong finish allowed the Stamps to continue their streaks of winning seasons and playoff appearances. Calgary finished in the top three in the CFL in both points scored and points allowed.

In 2019, the Stampeders finished second in the West Division with a record of 12-6 and earned the right to host a playoff game for a fourth consecutive year with Dickenson at the helm. The Stamps led the league with a turnover ratio of plus-15 and were the second-least penalized team in the CFL.

With Dickenson handling offensive play-calling duties, the Stamps finished second in passing yards, yards per play, completions, passing touchdowns and points off turnovers.

In 2018, Dickenson led the Stamps to their eighth Grey Cup title in franchise history as Calgary defeated the Ottawa Redblacks 27-16. The Stamps finished atop the West and advanced to the Grey Cup for a third straight season.

In 2017, Dickenson was the West Division finalist for the CFL's coach of the year award after receiving the award in 2016 when he guided the Stamps to a 15-2-1 mark for a franchise single-season record of 31 standings points.

In four seasons from 2012-15 under Dickenson's tutelage as offensive coordinator, the Stampeders led the CFL in cumulative points scored, finishing either first or second each year.

In his first season as offensive coordinator in 2011, Dickenson oversaw a Stamps offence that was among the league leaders in numerous categories.

He was named quarterbacks coach in 2010, the year Stamps quarterback Henry Burris was voted the CFL's Most Outstanding Player. When Dickenson first joined the coaching ranks in 2009, he tutored the Stampeders running backs and helped Joffrey Reynolds claim the CFL rushing crown.

Dickenson joined the Calgary coaching staff after an outstanding 13-year professional playing career. He spent 11 of his 13 seasons in the Canadian Football League, six of those with the Stampeders (1996-2000 and 2008).

A potent combination of intelligence, athletic ability and courage, Dickenson set a number of CFL passing records and was named the league's Most Outstanding Player in 2000 after throwing for 4,636 yards, 36 touchdowns and only six interceptions while guiding the Stampeders to a 12-5-1 record.

After spending two seasons in the National Football League – with San Diego in 2001 and with Seattle, Miami and Detroit in 2002 – Dickenson returned to Canada and signed with the BC Lions. After five seasons with the Leos – including a 2005 campaign in which he established league records for highest completion percentage and quarterback rating in a single season and an MVP performance in the 2006 Grey Cup – Dickenson returned to Calgary in 2008 for what proved to be his final season.

Dickenson joined the Stampeders in 1996 after a stellar career at the University of Montana. He was a three-time conference MVP with the Grizzlies and in 1995 led the nation in passing while guiding Montana to the NCAA Division 1-AA national title. He was named a member of the College Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2018 and was part of the Big Sky Conference's inaugural Hall of Fame class in 2020.

He and his wife Tammy along with children Avery and Cooper live in Calgary year-round. His coaching role extends into the off-season as he annually operates the Dickenson Passing Academy to work with young quarterbacks and receivers.

MARK KILAM

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR AND ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

CFL - 20 | STAMPS - 20

Kilam is in his 20th season with the Stampeders and his 15th as special teams coordinator. It is his fifth season with the additional title of assistant head coach.

In 2023, the Stampeders ranked in the top third of the league in a number of special-teams categories including net punting average, kickoff average, punt-return average and blocked kicks. Kicker René Paredes led the CFL with 52 field goals and punter Cody Grace was tops in the league with 12 punts inside the opponents' 10-yard line. Darius Williams was second in the CFL with 22 special-teams tackles.

In 2022, Paredes and Grace both earned CFL all-star honours and as a team the Stampeders led the CFL in net punting average (39.0 yards) and blocked kicks (three). Calgary also ranked in the top three in several other categories including fewest big-play returns allowed, kickoff average and kickoff-return touchdowns. Rookie Peyton Logan had 1,521 combined return yards and he scored one touchdown on a kickoff return and one on a missed-field goal return.

In 2021, the Stampeders led the league in field-goal percentage, net punting average, kickoff-return average and opponents' punt-return average and did not allow a kick-return touchdown. Grace was named a West Division all-star and Paredes was a finalist for the CFL's Most Outstanding Special Teams Player award.

The Stamps' special-teams unit was highlighted by several individual performances in 2019 as Paredes made the most field goals in the league from 40-plus yards, Terry Williams finished second with 2,147 combined yards and Nate Holley registered a team-leading 22 special-teams tackles – good for fourth-best in the CFL – and was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Rookie. In addition, the Stamps were tied for the CFL lead with three blocked kicks.

In 2018, the Stamps' special teams excelled as Calgary led the league in punt-return average (12.3 yards) and lowest opponent punt-return average (8.1 yards).

Calgary's special-teams unit played a key role in the Stamps' Grey Cup victory over Ottawa as Williams returned a punt for a touchdown and Riley Jones forced a fumble on a Redblacks punt return.

The 2017 special-teams unit included a record-setting performance by Roy Finch, who beat his own record for most punt-return yards in a season. Finch was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Special Teams Player and was also a CFL all-star alongside Paredes, who led the CFL with a 91.4-per cent success rate on field-goal attempts.

The Stamps led the CFL in 2016 with an average of 24.3 yards on kickoff returns. Paredes tied the franchise record with 56 field goals including a league-leading 18 three-pointers from 40 yards or longer. Paredes' season included a streak of 32 consecutive successful field goals. Rob Maver averaged a career-best 46.9 yards per punt.

In 2015, the group was led by Paredes, who made 41 of 47 field goals, 26 converts and seven singles for a West Division-leading total of 156 points. He earned West Division and CFL all-star nods and was the West's finalist for the Most Outstanding Special Teams Player award.

Maver earned all-star recognition for the third consecutive season in 2014 while Paredes' 2013 campaign featured two league records at the time – longest consecutive-field goal streak (39) and field-goal efficiency (94.7 per cent) – as well as the CFL's Most Outstanding Special Teams Player award.

In 2012, the Stamps ranked second in the CFL in big plays made in the return game while punter Burke Dales earned CFL all-star honours and both Dales and returner Larry Taylor were named West Division all-stars.

For a second consecutive season, the Stamps featured a rookie kicker in 2011 as Paredes converted on 38 of 48 field goals. In 2010, Kilam worked with Maver, who won the CFL scoring title and set the franchise mark for scoring by a rookie with 185 points.

Prior to assuming the special teams coordinator's position, Kilam worked in the dual roles of linebackers coach and strength and conditioning coach during the 2009 season.

In 2008, Kilam worked with a defence that allowed the fewest points and touchdowns in the CFL.

Kilam joined the team in 2005 as strength and conditioning coach and began assisting the defence during the season. The following year, he worked as the defensive quality control coach. In 2007, he coached the nickel and dime backs in the secondary before being promoted to linebackers coach during the year.

Before he joined the Stamps, Kilam coached on the defensive staff of the Southern Alberta All-Star Team in the Provincial Senior Bowl from 2003-05. Kilam also coached on the defensive staff with the Cochrane Cobras (2002-05) who went undefeated and won three provincial high school championships in that time.

Kilam played linebacker for the University of Alberta from 1997-2001 and was a team captain. He graduated with a Bachelor of Physical Education majoring in sport and performance.

Mark and his wife Andrea have two daughters.

COACHING STAFF

BRENT MONSON
DEFENSIVE COORDINATORCFL • 15 / STAMPS • 15

Monson is in his 15th season as an assistant coach for the Stampeders and his sixth as defensive coordinator.

The Stampeders defence in 2023 was led by West Division and CFL all-star linebacker Micah Awe, who set a team record for most tackles in a season with 134 and led the league in both tackles and defensive plays. Mike Rose also earned division and league all-star recognition after leading all defensive tackles with 11 sacks. Cameron Judge was tied for second in the league and was first among linebackers with five interceptions in 2023.

In 2022, the Stampeders led the CFL in sacks and allowed the league's second-lowest point total. The Calgary defence was No. 1 in fewest yards allowed per play, opponent second-down conversion rate and big plays allowed. The Stamps allowed the second-fewest rushing yards and allowed opponents the second-lowest pass-completion percentage. Defensive linemen Rose and Shawn Lemon, linebacker Judge and defensive back Jonathan Moxey were named West Division all-stars and Rose, Lemon and Judge earned CFL all-star recognition.

The Stampeders gave up the second-fewest offensive touchdowns in the CFL in 2021 and allowed an average of fewer than 19 points per game, conceding 15 points or less on four occasions. First-year linebacker Darnell Sankey led the league with 87 defensive tackles and was named a West Division all-star while Rose earned CFL all-star honours for the first time in his career.

Monson previously served five years over two stints as linebackers coach (2010 and 2015-18), one year as defensive line coach (2011) and three years as running backs coach (2012-14). He also served as the team's strength and conditioning coach from 2010-14.

During Monson's first season as defensive coordinator, the Stamps allowed the fewest big plays in the CFL and were second in yards conceded per play and two-and-outs forced. Linebacker Wynton McManis finished tied for fourth in the league with 86 defensive tackles and opposing teams were held to fewer than 20 points in nine of 18 regular-season games.

In both 2017 and 2018, Monson helped oversee a defence that allowed the fewest points in the CFL. He worked with a linebacker group in 2018 that included standout Jameer Thurman on the weak side and CFL all-star Alex Singleton in the middle. Singleton was voted the CFL's Most Outstanding Defensive Player following a season in which he established a league record for most tackles in a season by a Canadian. He also set team marks for most defensive tackles and most total tackles in a season.

In 2016, outside linebacker Deron Mayo led the Stamps with 77 tackles while Singleton, as a rookie, emerged as the starter at middle linebacker.

The previous season, Monson began his second stint as linebackers coach and oversaw a group that was part of a defence that allowed just 16.1 points per game.

In 2014 when Monson was running backs coach, Jon Cornish led the league in rushing for a third straight season with 1,082 yards despite playing in only nine games. He was named a CFL all-star and the CFL's Most Outstanding Canadian. Cornish was one of four Stamps running backs to register a 100-yard rushing game during the season.

In 2013, the Stamps led the CFL in several rushing categories including most first downs (160), most net yards (2,547), highest average per-game yardage (141.5) and highest average gain per rush (6.2). Cornish was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Player, Most Outstanding Canadian and Lou Marsh award winner as Canada's top athlete.

In 2012, during Monson's first season instructing the running backs, the Stamps led the CFL in rushing touchdowns with 20 and were second in the league with 2,088 rushing yards.

In 2011, Monson was Calgary's defensive line and strength and conditioning coach.

In 2010, Monson handled a talented and accomplished linebacking corps that contributed to the Stamps defence allowing the fewest points in the West Division. In his first season at middle linebacker, Juwan Simpson shared the team lead with seven sacks, earned CFL all-star recognition and was a finalist for the league's Most Outstanding Defensive Player award.

Monson is a graduate of McMaster University.

PAT DELMONACO

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR AND OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

CFL • 15 | STAMPS • 11

DelMonaco is in his 11th season as the Stampeders' offensive line coach and fifth with the additional title of offensive coordinator.

The Calgary offence boasted a pair of West Division all-stars in receiver Reggie Begelton and centre Sean McEwen. Begelton was also a CFL all-star. Injuries forced the team to use 10 different starting offensive linemen over the course of the season but Calgary nevertheless managed to allow the third-fewest sacks in the league. In 10 seasons with DelMonaco as offensive line coach, the Stamps have never finished lower than third in fewest sacks allowed.

In 2022, the Stampeders led the CFL with 562 points scored and 135.3 rushing yards per game. Calgary allowed just 17 sacks, 12 fewer than the next-best team in that category.

Three members of the offensive line – left tackle Derek Dennis, centre McEwen and right guard Ryan Szeviour – made the West Division all-star team in 2022 along with receiver Malik Henry and running back and CFL rushing champion Ka'Deem Carey. Three Stampeders – Dennis, McEwen and Carey – were named to the CFL all-star team.

The Stampeders allowed just 20 sacks in 2021 – the second-lowest total in the league – despite nine different offensive linemen making a start including four who were making their first starts of their careers. Three different offensive players were named West Division all-stars in 2021 – Carey, McEwen and receiver Kamar Jorden. McEwen was also a CFL all-star.

In 2019, Calgary allowed the second-fewest sacks in the CFL with 34. Offensive lineman Shane Bergman was the Stamps' nominee for Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman and earned West Division and CFL all-star recognition.

In 2018, the Calgary offensive line tied for the league lead in fewest sacks allowed with 27 and Dennis earned West Division all-star honours.

In 2017, Ucambre Williams became the team's starting centre despite limited experience at the position and was Calgary's nominee for the CFL's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman award.

The Stamps allowed the fewest sacks in the CFL for a third consecutive season in 2016. Two members of the offensive line – Dennis and Spencer Wilson – were named CFL all-stars and Dennis was voted the league's Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman.

In 2015, the offensive line paved the way for three different tailbacks to record 100-yard games. Pierre Lavertu and Wilson were West Division all-stars. The previous season, left tackle Stanley Bryant was a CFL all-star for the second straight year. Centre Brett Jones also received the league-wide honour in helping the Stampeders lead the league with 143.9 rushing yards per game.

The Stampeders did not allow a single sack in the 102nd Grey Cup game as Calgary beat Hamilton to win the seventh title in franchise history.

DelMonaco joined the Stamps in 2014 after spending the previous four seasons as the offensive line coach for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. Under DelMonaco, members of the Blue Bombers offensive line earned a total of five division all-star honours and Winnipeg had a per-game rushing average of more than 100 yards in three of his four seasons.

DelMonaco joined the Blue Bombers in 2010 after a seven-year stint at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He was RPI's offensive line coach for two seasons (2003-04) and the offensive coordinator for five years (2005-09).

He previously had stops at Hudson Valley Community College and as a graduate assistant at the University of Illinois. DelMonaco played offensive line for four seasons at the University of Albany and was a captain during his senior season. The Great Danes won two conference championships during DelMonaco's Albany career.

DelMonaco and his wife Kelly have two children – Julia and Pasquale III.

CFL • 6 | STAMPS • 4

Slowik is in his fourth season with the Stampeders after a stint as defensive coordinator for the Montreal Alouettes. He served as Calgary's defensive assistant in 2021 and was named linebackers coach prior to the 2022 season.

Two members of Slowik's linebacking crew – Micah Awe and Cameron Judge – both had stellar seasons in 2023. A West Division and CFL all-star in his first season with Calgary, Awe set a team record for most tackles in a season with 134 and led the league in both tackles and defensive plays. Judge was tied for second in the league and was first among linebackers with five interceptions in 2023 and also had 91 tackles, a fumble recovery and two forced fumbles.

In 2022, starting linebackers Judge and Jameer Thurman played an integral role in a Calgary defence that allowed the second-fewest points in the CFL. Both players finished top 10 in the league in tackles and Judge earned West Division and CFL all-star honours after leading the league in both fumble recoveries with five and big plays (a combination of interceptions, forced fumbles, fumble recoveries, blocked kicks and tackles, sacks or knockdowns leading to a turnover on downs).

With the assistance of Slowik in 2021, the Stampeders ranked third in the CFL in team defence and held their opponents to fewer than 300 yards of net offence five times.

In 2019, the Alouettes allowed the second-fewest points in the East Division and were led by linebacker Henoc Muamba, who won the CFL's Most Outstanding Canadian award. Five members of Slowik's unit – Muamba, John Bowman, Patrick Levels, Tommie Campbell and Greg Reid – were voted division all-stars while Muamba and Reid received league all-star recognition.

Prior to coming to the CFL, Slowik had a lengthy and distinguished career in the NFL including stints totaling 10 years as defensive coordinator with the Chicago Bears, Cleveland Browns, Green Bay Packers and Denver Broncos. During that time, six different players earned a combined total of 11 Pro Bowl honours and he coached two players – Champ Bailey and John Lynch – who went on to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

His 21 consecutive years as a coach in the NFL started with a position as defensive assistant on the Dallas Cowboys' Super Bowl-winning team following the 1992 season and concluded with four seasons with Washington from 2010-13.

Slowik coached 11 years in the collegiate ranks including five seasons in charge of the secondary at Rutgers, two seasons as outside linebackers coach at East Carolina and four seasons at Florida as a part-time defensive backs assistant.

DWAYNE CAMERON

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH AND CFL DRAFT COORDINATOR

CFL • 5 | STAMPS • 5

Cameron is in his fifth season on the Stampeders' coaching staff. In addition to coaching the defensive backs, he serves as

Calgary's CFL draft coordinator.

Injuries forced led to constant shuffling in the secondary – only three times during the 2023 season were the Stamps able to start the same six players in the same positions in consecutive weeks – but the unit nevertheless was able to help the team finish third in fewest passing yards allowed. Branden Dozier, who saw action both at safety and SAM, finished third on the team with 63 defensive tackles.

In 2022, the defensive backs were part of a unit that allowed the second-fewest points in the CFL. The Stamps allowed a league-low 7.7 yards per pass attempt, the opponents' 66.0-percent completion rate was the second-stingiest in the CFL and Calgary was tied for second with 19 interceptions. The secondary produced results despite a series of injuries that resulted in 13 different players making a start and several players playing multiple positions. Jonathan Moxey earned West Division all-star honours while making starts at three different positions – boundary corner, field corner and boundary half.

In 2021, the Stampeders finished third in the league in opponents' average yards per pass and completions of 30 or more yards. Five different players recorded an interception for the Stamps including a pick-six by Moxey.

Prior to joining the Stamps' coaching staff, Cameron served as a regional scout for the club.

Cameron had two stints at Wilfrid Laurier University, serving as the Golden Hawks' defensive backs coach and strength and conditioning coordinator from 2004-09 and as defensive backs coach, special-teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator from 2013-19. He was part of Wilfrid Laurier's Ontario conference championship teams in 2004, 2005 and 2016 and the Golden Hawks' Vanier Cup championship team in 2005.

In between his stints at Laurier, Cameron served as a defensive and special teams assistant on the Hamilton Tiger-Cats coaching staff in 2010 and 2011. On three occasions, he was head coach for Team Ontario at the International Bowl in Arlington, Tex.

During his playing career, the Guelph, Ont., native played safety at the University of Louisiana-Monroe.

GREY CUP HISTORY

The Calgary Stampeders have made it to the Grey Cup 17 times in their history and have eight championships to their credit.

The Stamps won their first championship in just their fourth year of existence, claiming the 1948 title. They returned to the Grey Cup in 1949 but this time lost the match to Montreal.

That would mark the end of the Stamps' participation in the big game until nearly two full decades later in 1968. Calgary lost the '68 contest but the appearance started a run in which the Red and White advanced to the Grey Cup three times in four seasons, culminating with a victory in 1971.

Then came another drought, this one lasting exactly 20 years before Calgary reached the Grey Cup in 1991. While the Stamps lost the 1991 Grey Cup game to Toronto, the contest nevertheless marked the dawn of an era of Stampeders excellence. The Red and White reached the Grey Cup game six times in the next 11 years and won three titles.

After a relatively short lull of six seasons, the Stamps returned to the pinnacle in 2008 and won again in 2014 and added another title in 2018.

In 2018, he played all 18 games and was part of a defensive unit that led the Canadian Football League in sacks and was among the top teams in run defence and fewest points allowed. Wiggan had 22 tackles including a team-leading four tackles for loss, one sack and one fumble recovery.

The Queen's University alumnus was one of the Stampeders' captains in 2022 and was also the team's representative for the CFL Players Association.

HERM HARRISON MEMORIAL AWARD

Honouring the memory of one of the legendary figures in Stampeders history, the Herm Harrison Memorial Award was instituted in 2014 and recognizes a Stampeders player who distinguishes himself in the field of community service. Harrison passed away on Nov. 2, 2013, at the age of 74.

One of the franchise's all-time greats, Harrison played for the Stampeders from 1964-72 and was a West Division all-star on six occasions and a CFL all-star three times. Harrison settled in Calgary after his playing career and was an active member of numerous community initiatives as an alumnus. Among the many causes he supported, the Special Olympics were a particular favourite. He was added to the Stampeders Wall of Fame in 1988 and inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 1993.

In 2023, the award went to receiver Reggie Begelton.

One of the team's top performers on the field – he led the Stamps in catches, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns – Begelton also shone off the field as an enthusiastic participant in numerous community events.

The product of Beaumont, Tex., was a regular participant in the Every Yard Counts program as he and several of his teammates visited the Alberta Children's Hospital the day before every home game to spend time with young patients. Begelton distinguished himself on these visits with his passion, enthusiasm and attentiveness. He brightened many a person's day by visiting the Ronald McDonald House and ICU units.

Begelton also helped grow the game of football by participating in the Learn to Play program, helping coach flag football to kids aged 5 to 15. He was also involved in a KidsPlay football program for the South Asian and New Canadian communities.

In addition, Begelton supported numerous local charities and organizations such as Tim Hortons Camp Days, Wellsprings Alberta and the Salvation Army Coat Drive with visits and social-media posts.

ATTACK IN BLACK

The Stampeders have an all-time record of 36-12 (regular season and post-season) while wearing their black jerseys, good for a .750 winning percentage.

The Stamps were the first Canadian Football League team to introduce a permanent third jersey when they unveiled black jerseys for the Labour Day Classic on Sept. 6, 1994. They capped the occasion with a 48-15 win over Edmonton.

Calgary played its first black-jersey playoff game in the 1998 West Division final and defeated Edmonton. A week later, while again sporting black, the Stamps beat Hamilton 26-24 in the Grey Cup.

LABOUR DAY CLASSIC

Since 1982 and for all but two seasons since 1969, the Calgary Stampeders have been hosting Edmonton in the Labour Day Classic. The Labour Day edition of the Battle of Alberta was first played in Calgary in 1959 and the clubs have met a total of 57 times, with the Stamps holding a record of 30-26-1.

While there is a lot of Labour Day history between Calgary and Edmonton, there is more to the Red and White's tradition on the September holiday than the rivalry with their provincial counterparts.

As a matter of fact, the first Labour Day game was the first regular-season contest the Stampeders ever played. The historic Sept. 2, 1946, game was against the Regina Roughriders at Calgary's Mewata Stadium, with the Stamps winning 9-0.

It was in 1949 that the now-familiar Calgary-Edmonton Labour Day matchup was born. The Alberta teams played five straight years in Edmonton before the series was briefly abandoned. Then, in 1959, the Red and White's rivalry with the Green and Gold was renewed. This time, Calgary was the site of the game and, with only a few exceptions over the years, it is in this form the tradition continues to exist today.

A total of 67 Labour Day games have been played in Calgary over the years, with the Stamps posting a 40-26-1 record. Calgary is 30-26-1 against Edmonton and undefeated against the Blue Bombers (6-0), Argonauts (2-0), Roughriders (1-0) and Lions (1-0).

MARK STEPHEN PLAY-BY-PLAY

28th year • Mark is a native Calgarian who began his broadcast career at CFCN Radio-TV. He is in his 28th season as the voice of the Stampeders. In 2013, Mark was inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame for his broadcast work. Along with Greg Peterson, Mark is part of the longest-serving broadcast duo in Canadian Football League history. He has also been the voice of the Western Hockey League's Calgary Wranglers, the National Lacrosse League's Calgary Roughnecks and the Pacific Coast League's Calgary Cannons. He is married with three children and resides in Calgary year-round.

GREG PETERSON COLOUR COMMENTATOR

27th year • Greg is in his 27th year as colour commentator and pre- and post-game analyst for the Stampeders' QR Calgary radio broadcasts. Greg played nine years with the Stampeders from 1984 to 1992 and in 1990 was named a CFL all-star and West Division all-star. He was a member of the Stamps' 1992 Grey Cup championship team. Greg played college football at Brigham Young University and was an NCAA academic all-American in 1982. He is actively involved in the Calgary minor football community, currently serving as president and director of the Greater Calgary Amateur Football Association and the Calgary Spring Football Association, and he also has extensive experience as a coach. Greg is a senior partner with a Calgary law firm — Gowling WLG LLP — and is the head of the firm's corporate finance and private equity group. He and his wife Deborah are the parents of three children.

JOCK WILSON CO-HOST OF PRE-GAME AND POST-GAME SHOWS

19th year • Jock has been involved in the Calgary sports media scene for more than 40 years. He moved to Calgary in 1980 to take the broadcasting program at Mount Royal College. His sports broadcasting career started a year later with 107 KIK FM. He moved over to Calgary Flames Radio in 1990 and served as the host of Flames radio broadcasts for seven seasons. In 1998, Jock hosted Calgary's first ever prime-time sports radio talk show — "Sportstalk with Jock." In 2004, Jock joined 770 CHQR as a co-host of Sportstalk and a year later he also joined the Stampeders broadcast team, first as the sideline host and then as the broadcast host. Jock is married to a third-generation Calgarian and has two children.

DAVE McIVOR CO-HOST OF PRE- AND POST-GAME SHOWS/SIDELINE REPORTER

4th year • Dave has been with QR Calgary his entire career, coming out of the broadcasting program at Mount Royal University and joining the station 10 years ago. Dave got his start covering Calgary Flames games in 2017 and became the morning sports guy in 2020, eventually joining the broadcast team in 2021. A former Calgary Bantam Bulldog, Dave has been around football since he was four. Dave and his wife Courtney are parents to one daughter and one very active golden retriever named Rocket.

STAMPEDERS FOUNDATION

STAMPEDERS FOUNDATION

The Stampeders Foundation is a community and charitable initiative dedicated to supporting sports, recreation and football at all levels. The Stampeders Foundation consolidates and strengthens the club's longstanding commitment to many charitable endeavours and allows the organization to build upon its relationship with the community.

Through 50/50 ticket sales at Stampeders home games and other fundraising initiatives and events, the Foundation supports grassroots and amateur football programs in southern Alberta.

In 2023, more than $365,000 was donated through the Stampeders Foundation in support of minor and amateur football projects in the southern Alberta community.

Other community highlights from 2023 include:

- 570 hours of community service by Stampeders players and other members of the organization
- The team participated in events that raised more than $600,000 for various causes
- A total of 422 community appearances including 60 school visits
- Collaboration with 24 separate community football programs
- Support for 55 different charitable organizations

The Stampeders Foundation is fully committed to the support of amateur and grassroots football in Calgary and Southern Alberta communities. Of the $365,000 contributed through the Stampeders Foundation this season, $285,000 was directed to football teams, associations, fields, facilities and football school programming. This includes ongoing support of Calgary high schools through the financing of HUDL digital coaching tools. More than $50,000 was contributed through the Stampeders Grow the Game and Stampeders Development Funds.

Calgary Stampeder Outriders

Presented by NWTC
NEW WEST TRUCK CENTRES

THE STAMPEDERS' OFFICIAL DANCE TEAM

The Outriders dance team consists of committed members who represent the football club on numerous occasions throughout the year.

The Outriders, presented by New West Trucks, are selected through an intensive audition and interview process each winter and are evaluated on dance ability and character.

When not serving as a member of the cheer team, these women are full-time professionals and post-secondary students.

The Outriders attend practices each week as well as pre-game rehearsals from April through November to prepare for each Stampeder home game. As a team, they contribute hundreds of community appearance hours each year.

A highlight of each and every season is the always-popular Jr. Outrider program. This special experience consists of a preparation camp for youngsters to learn basic dance routines from the Outriders. Following the rehearsals, all participants perform as the halftime showcase at a Stampeder home game.

The Outriders head coach is Kalie Morberg and the dance coach is Barbra Benini.

For more information on the Outriders, please visit stampeder.com

QUICK SIX

When the Stamps score a touchdown at McMahon Stadium, the Stampeders Touchdown Horse leads the charge down the East sideline as the crowd erupts in celebration.

What had been a long-standing tradition at Stampeders football games was enhanced in 1993 when the club introduced a white gelding to match the team's trademark logo, the white mustang. Quick Six was introduced in 2003 and continues the tradition to this day.

Chelsea Drake, the other half of the Calgary Stampeders Touchdown Horse tandem, enters her eighth season as Quick Six's rider. She is the daughter of Karyn Drake, who served as the touchdown horse rider for the previous 23 years.

RALPH THE DOG

Ralph the Dog was the first-ever CFL mascot and is the only mascot with six Grey Cup rings. Ralph has been the No. 1 fan of the Stampeders ever since arriving onto the scene in 1975. Now in his 50th season, he has been voted MVP (most valuable pooch) and Fan's Best Friend multiple times during his career. In addition to his game-day activity, Ralph is an active member of the community year-round at various appearances and events. He is part of the Calgary Sports and Entertainment Corporation's mascot family, including Harvey the Hound (NHL's Flames), Farley the Fox (WHL's Hitmen), Blasty the Bronco (AHL's Wranglers) and Howie the Honey Badger (NLL's Roughnecks).
